A CLIFTON race-ace has the name to succeed in racing but now he is starting to prove he has the talent.

Sixteen-year-old Scott Mansell has made a sensational impact on the Formula Honda Championship.

The young racer, who goes to Bishop Vesey School in Sutton, finished third in his first race in the Formula at Olton Park.

And he followed it up by driving his 600cc, 105hp car to seventh in a Monoposto Championship race at Mallory Park the next day. He was racing against 1200 and 1600cc cars and was the highest placed 600cc.

Unfortunately for Scott, the races were the last of the season but he is already gearing up for next season with the help of sponsors ZigZag and Drayton Manor Park.
