

Mansell's racing talent is in Czech

TEENAGE driving sensation Scott Mansell is off to Most in the Czech Republic this weekend for Round Four of the NDS EuroBoss series.

The 16-year-old Tamworth driver made a sensational debut at Mondello Park, Ireland in round three.

Unfortunately, a racing accident cut short his race but not before he had impressed with his racing skills.

The series draws drivers from all over Europe who race cars from F1, F3000 and Indy Car.
