SCOTT MANSELL

Proves he's a true racer

Scott Mansell and Klaas Zwart had the crowd at Donington Park on their feet watching round six of the EuroBOSS championship on Sunday.

Eighteen year old Mansell from Tamworth, the current lap record holder and championship leader, qualified the 1997 Zig-Zag Benetton on pole but was beaten into the first corner by a brilliant move from Klaas Zwart in his much improved Ascari Judd.

Scott Mansell:

"Qualifying went well, I believe it was one of the best laps I have put together around Donington even though the lap time was slower due to a slippery track. We qualified in pole position eight tenths in front of the greatly improved Ascari car, which had been to Spain for a weeks testing before the Donington race. I was pleased with the result as we still have the edge against the competition."

'I spun but I managed to carry on and finish second in the race'

The crowd were then treated to fifteen laps of wheel to wheel racing as Mansell tried everything to get back past his championship rival who was strongly defending the lead. Then on lap sixteen in a breath taking manoeuvre, running side by side down the Craner Curves, Mansell outbraked Zwart into the
