EuroBOSS champ plans GP2 attack

NEW EuroBOSS champion Scott Mansell is planning to move to the new GP2 category next year.

Mansell sealed the title in his Benetton-Judd B197 Formula 1 car when he finished third in the last round of the series at Le Mans.

"The GP2 budget is in place and we will announce something in three weeks," said the McLaren Autosport BRDC award finalist. "The GP2 car will be very similar to my Benetton. This has been good preparation as I have learnt a lot about high power and high downforce."

Mansell is still aiming for Formula One despite his unusual career path.
