TAMWORTH teenage racer Scott Mansell made his official debut in the NDS EuroBoss Championship at Mondello Park in Ireland.

The 16-year-old became the series' youngest ever racer in his 1991 F3000 Reynard Mugen, formerly driven by Christian Fittipaldi.

Starting from an 11th position, the Zig-Zag Mansell Motorsport driver made his way to sixth before being forced to retire after suffering damage in a racing incident.
